Personal Info

Interests:

I like to go for walks in the desert with my dog Mike and Rico teach me how to use various weapons and I am learning karate. I am good at picking locks and I practice that a lot, but most of all I like to discover new things.

About Me:

My parents got killed by the CCR and I was in prison camp for over a year. I escaped from the CCR prison camp with Toni McLaughlin and she took me to her rebel base high in the mountains. I decided to leave. Then I got captured again but the people who got me were not actually bad. I stayed there until they got bombed by the CCR but I was out walking so when I got back they were all dead and the CCR was everywhere. I went to the weapon warehouse and got all the weapons and killed them all then and escaped in a dune buggy. That's when I met Rachel Vega who lead me to the G Company and they helped me attack the CCR prison camp and free all the people there.
